Terms and conditions

These Terms and Conditions apply to all applicants on the Training and Mentoring Programme run by Cllr Peymana Assad on behalf of the Harrow Labour Party.

Participation

1. If a participant, having started the Programme then withdraws from the Programme for any reason, it is not guaranteed that the participant will be allowed to resume participation.
2. The team will seek regular responses from participants. Participants are asked to respond within the given timescale.
3. The team will organise training events in the course of the Programme which are compulsory to attend as a condition of acceptance of a place on the programme.
4. The team retains the right to change the agenda for the Training and Mentoring without notice to the participants.
5. We will make every effort to give participants reasonable notice in advance if there are changes to the programme.

Conduct during the Programme

1. We expect participants to respond to correspondence from the Programme team within five days.
2. It is the participant's responsibility to ensure that while participating in the Programme and while on any virtual spaces they do not behave in an improper or disorderly manner or in a way which threatens others, or in a way which is in breach of the Code of Conduct for Members of the Party.
3. In the event of such improper behaviour, the Local Campaign Forum will have the right to require the participant to withdraw from the Programme.
4. Materials given to participants during the duration of the Programme are the intellectual property of Cllr Peymana Assad and the contents cannot be reproduced, in full or part, without prior written consent from Cllr Assad.
